Differentiating Marketing from Advertising

If you think of marketing as a pie, the whole marketing pie can be divided into advertising, market research, media planning, public relations, community relations, customer support, and sales strategy. Advertising, while the most in-your-face slice of the pie, is still only one slice of the marketing pie.

What Is the Difference Between Marketing and Advertising ...

Others think marketing is interchangeable with sales, probably because the terms are often lumped together, as in "sales and marketing." And often, the terms marketing and advertising are used
