Once again Lee Bermejo and Co. hit one out of the park! I was very impressed with the two previous outings in Luthor and The Joker and Noel continues in that fine line of impressive artistry and writing.

Lee does a very good job of writing this book, and he accomplished what I had hoped, a Batman book with heart, and fantastic art. While the price tag may be a little high for a 100 page book, it is well worth it. Oversized art is the only way to appreciate Bermejo's art ( in my opinion of course ).

Batman: Noel (NOOK Comic with Zoom View) by Lee Bermejo ...

Batman: Noel is Charles Dickens's A Christmas Carol set with Batman as Scrooge, Robin as Marley, Catwoman as the Ghost of Christmas Past, Superman as the Ghost of Christmas Present, and the Joker as the Ghost of Christmas Future. It's an interesting premise, even if sometimes the molding of Gotham City's cast into the Dickensian world is a bit forced or clunky. The illustrations are amazing.
